

South Birmingham Sinfonia

SBS is a thriving orchestra of more than 50 players.

We perform a wide range of music including major symphonic works and concertos with professional soloists.

What our audiences say:-

■ I'd completely forgotten that I was listening to what was supposed to be an amateur orchestra. ■ The music-making was committed and passionate...incredibly impressive playing. ■ The orchestra has really upped the ante in terms of ambitions and varied repertoire and skill in playing. It is a pleasure to come.
